Purpose: The objective of this activity is to curb and prevent governmental corruption in both political and bureaucratic offices. The activity focuses on unilateral abuses by government officials (e.g., embezzlement and nepotism), as well as on abuses such as bribery, extortion, influence peddling, and fraud that link public and private actors.

Possible Work Areas: Activities for these IQCs are expected to encompass the following functional areas: (1) public-sector financial, administrative, regulatory, and personnel controls that promote transparency and accountability; (2) civil society participation in advocating for governmental integrity; and (3) cross-sectoral activities promoting synergies between anti-corruption promotion and other sectoral areas. Major components of this activity include, but are not limited to

- Conducting country assessments and designing strategic responses to corruption
- Conducting service delivery or corruption perception surveys
- Implementing anti-corruption public relations campaigns
- Sponsoring investigative journalism workshops
- Holding integrity workshops at the local or national level
- Providing training and information to non-governmental advocacy groups on advocacy and monitoring skills, management, fundraising and other areas as appropriate
- Training government officials on how to limit authority, improve accountability, and realign incentives in government institutions
- Training host country officials on oversight, ethics, or other anti-corruption related functions
- Providing advisory services related to drafting and enforcing anti-corruption laws
- Assisting with the development of strategies, programs, and activities that optimize linkages between governmental integrity and other sector areas

DCHA/DG has prepositioned funds allowing for the rapid deployment of resources, including qualified technical personnel for reconnaissance, planning and early implementation of assistance activities. Please contact the CTO for further information.
